My dear Friend. I shall be in Glasgow on the fourteenth - and shall remain there and in its vicinity, several days - you will do me a kindness - by sending all the books you have ready to that place, unless you have more than five hundred, I think you had better not bind up more than one thousand now as I doubt very much whether I can get rid - of more the coming six months they go very slow. My first meeting in this place will take place this evening; we shall probably hold three here - and from here return to Montrose - hold one more meeting there, touch at Dundee - hold a meeting - at Perth and hold another meeting - and from there return to Glasgow.

My kind regards to Mrs Webb.

in haste truly yours

J Douglass
